LOCAL LACONICS.

Brief Note and Comment on Current City Events.

Municipal Court to-day.

CHAMBERLAIN, a ten year old lad, died of heart disease Saturday morning.

This Zaneville Rehearsal will make a return visit to this city Thanksgiving day.

One marriage license and one deed of trust was all the business done by the County Clerk last Saturday.

The Dancing Club of Fulton will give a masquerade ball at Newhall's Hall, Wednesday evening, November 24th.

TIMES B. LUCAS, an inmate of the Penitentiary, died of heart disease last week, after an imprisonment of only a few months.

A man well known in this city was picked up yesterday in the B. & O. in a "comatose" state as the Chief of Police put it, and carted off to the lock-up.

A kettle full of tar was ignited Saturday, below Twenty-first street, by a small boy, and the Department was called out to extinguish it. "No damage."

On Saturday last W. H. Haller, auctioneer, sold at the front door of the Court House the Nierman property, corner of East and Twenty-fifth street, for $900.00 cash.

GEORGE A. SMITH, of this city, and Capt. W. G. Brown, of the Hampshire, shot seventeen rabbits, two pheasants and a number of quail, near Taylorstown, Pa., last Tuesday.

The police were sent yesterday to arrest a couple of pugilists at Blum's boarding house, on the creek, but when they arrived, no disorder was apparent nor fighters in sight.

JAMES NEALE, sentenced to the Penitentiary for four years and six months for burglary, escaped from the guards at the Penitentiary last Friday evening, and has not been recaptured.

C. H. MYERS anticipated the certain effect of a speech from Representative Jordan last Saturday and got two tickets to the Penitentiary. Wren't Myers just a little too rapid!

Mr. CHARLES BIRCH and his wife on yesterday suffered a sad bereavement by the death of their little son, Jesse, a bright and interesting boy. The funeral will take place this afternoon from the parents' residence.

Mrs. NANCY BLAYNEY, mother of Capt. David M. James, Adams, Rev. Dr. J. C. McHenry Blayney, died suddenly from paralysis last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Reed, in this county, near Alexander.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company and the authorities at Mt. De Chantal have erected a neat and handsome two-story station at Mt. De Chantal, east of the present station, which will be found much more convenient than the old one.

DAVID SMITH Phillips has encountered some little difficulty at Ironton, Ohio, in reclaiming Alex. Lemly, the fugitive horse thief. The friends of Lemly are opposing all the legal obstacles possible, and it may be a day or two yet before Phillips arrives in the city with his man.

The fruit stand of Wm. Sylvie, at the corner of Sixth and Main streets, was robbed of a quantity of candy and fruit, yesterday, by several boys who forced an entrance from the cellar beneath the shanty. Major Sweeney and his force are after certain suspected characters.

This funeral of Wm. Kleveis took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and was largely attended. The Young Men's Association and English Club, Capt. John M. Birch, of which he was a member, turned out in large numbers as a token of respect, also the Workmen. The interment took place at Mt. Wood.

The Opera House Manager will take care hereafter that those young men who act as hangers will not disturb the audience by rushing to the front with bouquets during a performance. The ushers, however, claim that they were told to do so by the persons sending the flowers, in which case the senders were less polite than the boys.

VICK PARSONS, Ed. ROGERS and Deputy C. D. Thompson, of the Amalgamated Association, were called to Ashland, Ky., last week, to arrange a difficulty between the hatters and operators of the iron mill at that place. A heater had been discharged for doing inferior work, and the other heaters rebelled. After hearing the evidence on both sides, Messrs. Rogers and Thompson decided that the managers of the mill were justifiable in their action, and sustained them.

At a called meeting of former professors and students of Augusta College, held at the Barnett Hotel, Cincinnati, during last May, it was resolved to hold a reunion at Augusta, Ky., on Wednesday, Nov. 17, 1880. Dr. A. J. Lyda was a student in this institution for four years, and now, after an absence of thirty years, he leaves on the steamer Hudson this morning for Augusta, Ky., to join with the professors, students and friends of old College in the cherished memories of old college life.

THE COURT.—SUPREME COURT OF APPEALS.—Judges Green, Haymond, Moore and Johnson.—This court met at 10 o'clock Saturday morning and disposed of the following business:

In the case of John Orr vs. W. S. Wiley et al., a writ of habeas corpus was allowed. Bond $200.

James Carakodan et al. vs. Charles L. Torreyson et al., Mineral county. Opinion by Judge Haymond. Decree reversed and bill dismissed.

Ralph Snyder vs. Ralph Snyder, Monongalia county. Opinion by Judge Moore. Decree of Circuit Court affirmed.

State of West Virginia vs. the relation of James M. Mason vs. the Harper's Ferry Bridge Company et al., Jefferson county. In this case the opinion of the Court was filed, judgment having been previously rendered.

In the case of Postwaite vs. Wise, from Monongalia county, opinion by Greene. Decree of Circuit Court affirmed.

In the case of Chaplain vs. The Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad Company, Judge Okey Johnson asked for authority upon the following questions:

First.—Is a railroad in full operation, liable to be used under legal process, for the debt of the corporation?

Second.—If not so liable, will a levy of attachment in equity upon such section give a court of equity jurisdiction so that a personal decree may be rendered against the corporation?

Third.—If the bill shows upon its face jurisdiction in a court of equity, and the whole case shows that the defendant corporation owns or controls the property within the jurisdiction of the court, except a section of a said road in operation, should the bill be dismissed for want of jurisdiction?

In this such a case, is the want of jurisdiction waived, or can it be waived by the answer of the defendant corporation and no objection taken in answer, or otherwise in the court below, to the jurisdiction of the court?

Adjourned until 9 o'clock next Saturday morning.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Judge Meier.

This Court met at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, and transacted the following business:

The case of The State vs. John Kane, charged with burglary, was put on trial before the following jury: Samuel Stewart, J. W. Ward, John Dunning, William O'Leary, J. W. Christie, The Master, M. Riesbach, Frank Hoge, J. E. Clator, Geo. H. Beam, David C. Baird, and Jos. McKee. Prosecuting Attorney Jordan appeared for the State, and Capt. A. M. Barnett for the defendant. The trial continued until 9 o'clock this morning.

GOOD WORK IN READING, PA.—I was afflicted with rheumatism and swelling of the limbs for a period of eighteen months, and tried many remedies without success. I was recommended to read the Intelligencer, and I purchased a bottle thereof of Mr. Lingel, my druggist. A few applications cured me. Mrs. ANTHONY OTTERBEIN.
